

CLUBS ROUNDUP

AFTER TAKING part in the Ras-y-Daffodil challenge event, Steve Gowing writes in Four Play, from the Beds, Herts and Cambs LRC: "As the five vehicles in team Gipsy Wort had a repair list that included two broken rear drive shafts, one front drive shaft, two CV joints, one 36 inch tyre, one inner tube, one distributor, one driver's door, several wings, countless lights and one drag link, I think Wales won."

Range Rover, he's not a Freelandier yet!

I'm only joshing of right about the Police the Ninety and got a replace it.

I've referred to the "Members" section of Suffolk LROC before, invariably funny and this page.

Cheryl Berry writes of her Rover: "Because I could drive a Vitara around the corner of Dream Land Rover: pink, with lots of light. Anything About The World Would Change?: "A indoor course?"

In Chiltern Torque Vale LRC, Andy Milner passed gate one and declared 'Oh Good' uttered by Hettie (or pleased with us get ally her ashen look more relief that she

In a light-hearted Safety rules and a Magazine, from the comes up with a hi Assessment for a s

My favourites are exhibits on stands erect a barrier; the having a barrier is action is to remove