

This month's 'most fun' read was Four Play, mag of Beds, Herts & Cambs Land Rover Club. First off is a cracking quote from Robert De Niro who said: 'According to a new survey, women say they feel more comfortable undressing in front of men than they do undressing in front of other women. They say women are too judgmental, whereas of course, men are just grateful.' And if David Beckham really did say: 'Alex Ferguson is the best manager I've had at this level. Well he's the only manager I've actually had at this level. But he's the best manager I've ever had,' he deserves all the stick he gets...

And here's my favourite five from 43 'you know you own a Land Rover when... 1) You go to get the Sunday paper and come back on Tuesday with Monday's. 2) Your mum can't get in without help. 3) Your parts dept is on blocks behind the house. 4) You use an ice scraper on the inside of the windscreen. 5) You spend more on oil than insurance.

Four Play's Ed, Hayley Brown, included this interesting 'special request' in the mag. "It has been pointed out that there was a placing missed on the results for the Family Vehicle Trial at Whitwell and to clear up the marital confusion that ensued... Robert Hunsley got 24 points in May's FVT (and beat Owen Rogers)". The wording of which kinda suggests to me that Robert Hunsley is married to Owen Rogers...

But on a more serious note (and particularly if you live in or around Birmingham), Four Play reports that out of 20 LPG converted 'cars' tested by Birmingham Trading Standards, 19 were found to be potentially dangerous...

And to close this month's roundup, two more quick one liners. From Full Marques, magazine of the All Marques Off Road Club: It has been recommended by dentists that a toothbrush be kept at least six feet away from a toilet to avoid airborne particles resulting from the flush.

And from Funny Torque in Chiltern Torque, newsletter of the Chiltern Vale Land Rover Club an interesting his 'n' hers definition of 'thingy'. Hers: Any part under a Land Rover's bonnet. His: The strap fastener on a woman's bra. That seems logical...
